The Montclair

The Carriage Homes at Stapleton

Carry out your carry-out.

Traditional

Yes, it's another outdoor experience story. (These homes are full of them.) This time it's all about the glories of a covered balcony. Think of it. You come home after work with your box of pad Thai. But instead of sitting at the dining table or in front of the TV, you eat your noodles as you watch the sun go down. Or even as you watch the rain come down. It's just another small way to feel more alive.

- ❶ The area at the top of the stairs serves as a very nice entry, complete with coat closet.
- ❷ Prime work space — the study in this home has its own closet as well as direct access to the bathroom.
- ❸ With the optional high-capacity washer and dryer, this little laundry room acts like a great big laundry room.
- ❹ Living in a Carriage Home, you don't need storage space for a lawnmower. But the garage is a good place for skis, bikes and, of course, your car.
